

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LRP's National Institute Reveals Seven Tailored Tracks With More Than 35 Captivating Sessions
Attendees will receive top-notch compliance and implementation strategies in tracks focused on IDEA, Section 504, Behavior, Administration, Attorney Ethics and more.

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. – January 11, 2022 – LRP's National Institute on Legal Issues of Educating Individuals with Disabilities®, the leading source for compliance strategies and case updates impacting special education programs, announced seven tailored learning tracks that will include more than 35 sessions during the conference taking place April 24 - 27, 2022 at the Kentucky International Convention Center in Louisville, Kentucky.

The seven focused tracks include:

- Administration: This track is geared toward special education leaders who develop systems, programs, processes and policies that strengthen the working environment, support student achievement, optimize resources and enhance organizational outcomes.
- Behavior: Special education directors, directors of school mental health and behavioral services, school psychologists, behavior specialists, clinical services coordinators, and trauma trainers will get the latest strategies to approach discipline dilemmas and student mental health under federal laws.
- Digital Learning Solutions: Sessions in this track will focus on emerging legal issues related to technology in special education and introduce attendees to the latest tools that can support students' academic and social-emotional growth.
- Ethics: Attorneys can earn continuing legal education credits, or CLEs, by attending one or both sessions in this track based on application of the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct in the special education context.
- IDEA: With sessions for every role in special education, this track includes comprehensive coverage of schools' obligations to provide all children with disabilities with a free appropriate public education.
- Section 504: The goal of this track is to assist Section 504 coordinators, administrators, social workers, counselors and service providers build a better understanding of how to avoid discrimination claims and provide all students an equal opportunity.
- Special Ed Connection® Users Group: In this track, attendees will learn how to maximize their subscription to Special Ed Connection and use this innovative online resource to advance staff knowledge and skills related to best practices, the latest court decisions, compliant policies and more.

"Attendees of LRP's National Institute can follow one learning track or mix and match based on their interests and legal compliance concerns," said Julie J. Kline, Esq., Vice President of Education, LRP Media Group and Conference Chair. "We are eager to be able to have our attendees experience all seven tracks in person again."

The Institute will include a captivating General Session with Henry Winkler where he will share how his personal struggles of growing up with undiagnosed dyslexia turned into a passion for helping children facing similar challenges. The Institute will also feature eight Pre- and Post-Conference Symposiums as well as an Expo Hall that will offer a unique opportunity for attendees to discover the latest innovations in classroom technologies and find new ways to improve students' learning outcomes.

Registration is now open for LRP's National Institute on Legal Issues of Educating Individuals with Disabilities. Professionals who register by February 25, 2022, can take advantage of Early Bird Savings and save $150.00 off the on-site rate. For more information and to register visit www.LRPInstitute.com or call toll-free 1-800-727-1227.

###

About LRP's National Institute on Legal Issues of Educating Individuals with Disabilities®

LRP's National Institute on Legal Issues of Educating Individuals with Disabilities has been delivering the highest-quality professional development possible to special educators for over 40 years. With a robust program focusing on legal compliance and best practices, the National Institute provides the tools and resources needed for educators to make an impact in the lives of students, special education programs and their communities.

About LRP Media Group

LRP Media Group, founded in 1977 by Kenneth Kahn, is an innovative media giant serving millions of business and education professionals worldwide. Specializing in education administration, education law, education technology, federal employment, and human resources, LRP publishes thousands of books, pamphlets, newsletters, videos and online resources. The company also produces industry-leading print and digital magazines for key decision-makers: District Administration®, Human Resource Executive®, HRM Asia, and University Business. Additionally, LRP annually delivers top-quality training and professional development to more than 80,000 professionals through its award-winning conferences and tradeshows in China, Singapore and the United States. LRP currently employs more than 500 professionals in its Connecticut, Florida, Pennsylvania, Singapore and Washington, D.C. offices. Headquartered in Palm Beach County since 1996, the company has more than $70 million in annual revenue. For a complete list of LRP resources, eCourses and conferences, please visit www.lrp.com.

Media Contact:

Rennette Fortune
LRP Media Group
P: 561-622-6520
E: rfortune@lrp.com
www.lrp.com